DESCRIPTION OF WORK:

Main Activity:

Design and construction of a straw bale cabin at the "Territorio del juego": The idea is to construct the first straw bale cabin of a future group of cabins which will become the "Territorio del Juego". It is a city hall project that has been started a couple years ago. The cabin pretends to be a model of those traditional ecological and bioclimatic houses built in the past with mud, straw and white lime. The green roof will be the final task.

The "Territorio del Juego" is also a space for play in a natural setting with an innovative design to promote traditional games as an educational resource and as a stimulus for intergenerational activities. In past years seven playgrounds have been designed. The goal for this year's camp is to start the design and
